

Must-reads

New York Times Best Seller Notes Left Behind by Brooke and Keith Deserich (Harper Collins, $24.99, out now)

Although her time on this earth was far too short to fulfil her dream, she left behind an enlightening lesson on life.

Elena taught those around her to appreciate the miracle of everyday living even as the six-year-old battled brain cancer.

Through her selfless love, her notes show us how even during the hard times in life, hope and encouragement are still possible to find.

A compassionate story has been made about love and about appreciating the everyday moments.

Vampire satire

Nightlight by Harvard Lampoon (Harper Collins, $14.99, out now)

There were three things I was absolutely certain of.

First, Edwart was most likely my soul mate, maybe.

Second, there was a vampire part of him - which I assumed was wildly out of his control - that wanted me dead.

And third, I unconditionally, irrevocably, impenetrably, heterogeneously, gynecologically, and disreputably wished he had kissed me.

And thus Belle Goose falls in love with the mysterious and sparkly Edwart Mullen in the Harvard Lampoon's hilarious send-up of Twilight.
