

ROSANNE CASH

On The List, her 12th studio album, the singer covers 12 tracks from a canon of essential country songs that her father, Johnny Cash, gave her in 1973. The CD includes “Sea of Heartbreak” (featuring Bruce Springsteen) and “Long Black Veil” (with Jeff Tweedy).

Turn on the music

STING

Dedicated to the musician’s favorite season, If on a Winter’s Night... mixes the traditional music of the British Isles with two of his own classical gems, “Lullaby for an Anxious Child” and “The Hounds of Winter.”

CARRIE UNDERWOOD

The American Idol alum this year became the first country artist ever to have 10 singles from her first two albums hit No. 1 on the charts. Her third album is her latest since Carnival Ride in 2007.

BEE GEES

Honoring the brothers Gibb on the group’s golden anniversary, the double-disc Ultimate Bee Gees collection features their biggest hits as well as their version of songs, such as “I Can’t Have You,” that they wrote for others.

Curl up with a book

WHISTLIN' DIXIE IN A NOR'EASTER

By Lisa Patton

When a man uproots his family from Memphis, Tenn., to Vermont to fulfill his dream of running an inn, his wife learns to exchange her Southern-belle ways for the Yankee lifestyle.

“I could hear Daddy’s voice, too, somehow echoing Kissie’s words of wisdom. ‘My baby’s a fighter. Don’t let anyone get the best of you. You can get through this, pull yourself up by your bootstraps and be somebody.’” —from Whistlin’ Dixie in a Nor’easter somehow echoing Kissie’s words of wisdom. ‘My baby’s a fighter. Don’t let anyone get the best of you. You can get through this, pull yourself up by your bootstraps and be somebody.’” —from Whistlin’ Dixie in a Nor’easter

AIN'T TOO PROUD TO BEG

By Susan Donovan

Thirty-five-year-old Josie Sheehan and three other single women in her dog-walking group vow to find happiness without men. But then Josie meets Rick Rousseau, a pet company CEO, and her Labradoodle is no longer the only male in her life. Before long, Rick reveals a startling secret that could complicate his future with Josie.

NOTES LEFT BEHIND

By Brooke and Keith Desserich

From the moment their 5-year-old daughter, Elena, was diagnosed with terminal brain cancer to her final days, the Desseriches kept a journal of their family’s heartbreaking struggle. Now in print, the true story is a poignant reminder to everyone of the importance of spending time with the people who matter most in life.

